

TWELVE MEN PLACE BLAME FOR MURDER

James J. Lyons, Accused of Slaying Guilty Japanese Hack Driver, Found Guilty of Manslaughter, While His Companion, Ray C.
Smith, Is Discharged After Jury Deliberates Nearly Ten Hours.

George James Joseph Lyons, guilty of manslaughter in the first degree; Ray C. Smith, not guilty.

This was the gist of the verdict returned by the jury in Judge Robinson's criminal branch of the first circuit court last night at ten minutes past nine o'clock, in the case of the Territory against the two men named above, who were charged with murder in the first degree, the man they were accused of murdering being the Japanese hackman, Kazuo Hirai, who was found dead in his hack at Iwilei on the night of August 11 last.

The jury retired at twenty-five minutes after eleven o'clock yesterday morning to consider its verdict. At a quarter to one in the afternoon, not having arrived at a verdict, the jurors went to lunch, in charge of Clerk V.
M. Harrison, acting as bailiff. It returned at three minutes past two o'clock and resumed consideration on the verdict. At half past four o'clock the jury filed into court and announced to Judge Robinson that it had failed to agree, whereupon the judge asked if the jurors thought that, having consumed four days in trying the case, they had given consideration of the verdict sufficient time. This was an intimation that the jury should retire and go to work again.

Before leaving, Attorney William R. War-ham asked Judge Robinson if he knew which of the defendants was left-handed. This Judge Robinson could not answer, as the point was not brought out during the trial of the case. Just why the information was wanted no inkling was given. After being furnished with the voluminous instructions given them on behalf of the prosecution, the defense and on behalf of the court itself, the jurors filed back into their secret chamber and got to work once more.

At six o'clock Judge Robinson ordered the jury to dinner, but the answer came back that it expected to arrive at a verdict in a quarter of an hour's time. At the expiration of that time word was returned that another disagreement had ensued. The jury then went to dinner, and after returning went again to work, until it finally agreed on the verdict, given above.

Stood Ten to Two.
It is understood that the jurors stood ten to two against Lyons from the start and was unanimous in favor of Smith, but that the two for Lyons held out to the last until the majority agreed to a verdict less than life imprisonment for Lyons.

Lyons turned extremely pale when the verdict against him was read by Clerk M. T. Simonton, for the verdict means imprisonment at hard labor for Lyons for not less than ten nor more than twenty years under the indeterminate sentence of the Territory.

Judge Robinson will pass sentence on Lyons at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. Attorney S. F. Chillingworth, who ably defended Lyons and saved him probably from the gallows, took the usual exceptions to the verdict, and made a motion for a new trial on behalf of his client. Ray C. Smith was discharged from custody last night by Judge Robinson, after having been held for trial since last August. He was also ably defended by Attorney Leon M. Strauss.

From the time the jury was finally sworn to try the case it was felt that it would be next to impossible to secure a verdict of murder in the first degree against both or either of the defendants, as Juror John William Smithies announced to the court that he was opposed to capital punishment and he felt that his conscientious scruples would stand against such a verdict. It was stated then that one was slipped over on City Attorney Cathcart for allowing Smithies in the first place to remain on the trial panel.

Defense Closes Early.

The defense put on its case yesterday morning at half past eight o'clock, but neither defendant was called to the stand. Among the witnesses who testified for the defense were Eugene Hayes, a soldier who stated that Lyons had been in his company the evening of Kikuro Hirai's murder; D. L. Mac-Kay, who reported the story of the murder for The Advertiser; Lieut.
Robert S. Donaldson, Capt. L. R. Hal-brook, Corporal Joseph Moret and Private Corbett Wayson, of Schofield Barracks, all of whom gave the defendants excellent character. Military de-ments were introduced in evidence, which gave the history of the service of the defendants. This was all to the good, as far as the accused men were concerned.

The defense rested at thirty-five minutes after nine o'clock, Attorney S. F.
Chillingworth, Sr., for Lyons, consumed ten minutes in addressing the jury. Prosecutor Cathcart spent twenty minutes' time taking the jury for a verdict, as charged, Attorney Leon M. Strauss refrained from addressing the jury.

In the civil suit of the S. N. Castle Estate and W. R. Castle, trustees, against A. Hansen, administrator of the estate of L. Ahlo, deceased, H.
Hickfield & Company and the Kaneohe Rice Mill Company, an amendment was filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the first circuit court striking out from the title of the case the name of W. R. Castle, trustee. At the same time the plaintiff filed a replication to the answer of the defendants.

One of the Foremost Statesmen of Japan Has Expressed Desire to Entertain Hawaiian Visitors at Reception During Excursion to Land of Mikado Leaving Honolulu March 27 Next.

Count Okuma, one of the foremost statesmen of Japan, once the Premier in its government, has expressed a desire to entertain the members of the proposed excursion from Hawaii to Japan and a reception at which he will be the host has been arranged as part of the program of the excursion party, which is now practically assured. Count Okuma is well known by reputation to a majority of the people of Hawaii and to Americans generally, having come into the news on frequent occasions in the course of his work as minister of foreign affairs.

Guests of Multimillionaire.
The excursionists are to be entertained, also, by Kihachiro Okura, known as the Morgan of Japan, a multimillionaire merchant and collector of curios, whose art galleries and cabinets are famous.

The president of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, upon whose liner, Shinyo Maru, the excursionists will travel to and from Japan, will also entertain the party at his residence at Shinagawa, near Yokohama, the day after their arrival on Japanese soil.

The tentative itinerary of the excusionists, as drawn up by Editor Sheba of the Hawaii Shimpo, is:

William Allen Enters Plea of Not Guilty to Two Charges of Forgery.

William Allen, indicted by the territorial grand jury on Wednesday on two counts for passing forged checks, was yesterday arraigned in Judge William J. Robinson's court and pleaded not guilty to both charges. A. L. C.
Atkinson represented the defendant.
It is understood that by special arrangement the cases will go to trial early next week.

The arraignment of Hookeaku Eleakala Nahu, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, was yesterday reserved until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. Nahu, who is out on bond, was not in court yesterday, but was represented by Attorney A. L. C.
Atkinson.

Chim San Jim, charged with burglary in the first degree, was arraigned yesterday morning before Judge Robinson and pleaded not guilty. Attorney Clem K. Quinn was appointed by the court to defend Jim.
Yee Don Yoo yesterday withdrew his appeal in the criminal branch of the circuit court presided over by Judge Robinson. The appeal in this case had been taken from the conviction of Yoo in the district court of Ewa, where he was given six months for larceny. Yoo rounded out a fair day yesterday in the district court of Honolulu also, where he was given three additional sentences which aggregated sixteen months' imprisonment, the first for the larceny of an automobile tire worth forty dollars, the property of Manuwa W. W. Goodale of Wahiula; the second of six months for the larceny of a bicycle and the third for a like offense and for which he received four months additional detention in the calaboose. Altogether Yee Don Yoo drew twenty-two months in durance

REGIMENT IS COMPLETE AT LAST

Final Recruit Is Transferred from Company D to Bill Captain Su-per's Company—Regimental Orders Will Be Issued Today, According to Late Report.

Two men were secured for the Third Regiment Company yesterday, which completes this company, and Capt. Paul Super expects that today this company will be formally mustered in the National Guard of Hawaii and the regimental status of the guard completed.

Only two recruits were necessary yesterday morning for perfecting the organization of Captain Super's company, and at noon Charles L. Hall, a clerk in the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, joined the company and was sworn in by Captain Super, as recruiting officer, thus making sixty men.

Then the recruit commenced for the last man to fill the company, and this was accomplished late in the afternoon, H.
B. Evans of the Honolulu School for Boys having the honor of being the man to restore the National Guard of Hawaii to its regimental status, and orders to this effect will be issued today, it was stated last night.

But to get this man Col. John W.
Jones, adjutant general of the guard, had to transfer one man from Company B, Captain Kolb's company, and the man was Evans. But Company B is going ahead so rapidly that it can well spare a recruit, even though a good one.

The other men who have joined the company recently include George Galbraith, W. N. Fatten, L. B. Macdonald, Max Holte, Paul Kabin, W. McElwaine, L. S. Putnam, F. L. Carter, Frank J.
Snyder and Charles L. Hall. Captain Super desires that these men will be secured and sworn in before tonight.

Equipment Is Shy.

At present the Third Regiment Company has no equipment, and this will have to be secured through a requisition by the adjutant general upon the war department, and the uniforms and rifles sent from San Francisco. There was a report yesterday that this equipment might be furnished by the regular Army authorities of the Hawaiian Department, but this was denied at headquarters yesterday. Even if it was permissible to supply such equipment the Army here has not got it in stock to supply. But as soon as the equipment is officially mustered into the guard as a part of the First Regiment the order for the full equipment will go forward.

Other companies of the guard are also short of equipment, and some members of Company D, Captain Kolb's, are feeling sad because they understand that with giving them the letter D, which was formerly the Hilo company, they will also be required to use a considerable amount of second-hand equipment with the letter D described on it.

Company B Likes It.

Company B, Capt. J. M. Cooke, held a drill and special meeting in the new Army hall last night, at which Lieut. tenant Ahia and Second Lieut. T. H.
Engelman, the latter taking his place as an officer in this company for the first time, took an active part.

It was decided by the company to hold a special drill and meeting next Tuesday evening, at which time the members will pick the squads and teams to take part in the big military tournament.

It was also decided to try and get the letter of their company changed to K, instead of B, as at present, and to make a lively campaign to have all ex-Kamehameha cadets join. As these have all received military training, it is expected that "Company K" will be one of the crack companies of the guard.

Schooner Formerly in Honolulu Trade Goes on Rocks Off Destruction Point.

That the four-masted schooner Aloha, which arrived at Gray's Harbor from Suva, Fiji, December 6, and departed the next day for Seattle, has found a last resting place off Destruction Island is indicated by wireless reports sent to Seattle by the lookout at Tatoosh, between Christmas and the New Year.

That another marine disaster has occurred, is emphasized by the report of the lookout which says that a four-masted schooner had been ashore near Osette for nearly ten days and that it is believed to be the Aloha, no other four-masted being due off the cape at the time the wireless description of the disaster was sent to Seattle. It is the opinion of the Tatoosh lookout, that the Aloha was caught by a sudden and very strong wind and carried in from the sea by the rocks upon which the waves poured the ill-fated vessel until it went to pieces.

The schooner Aloha was in the trade between Honolulu and San Francisco for many years.
